Final Decisions

Juniors & Young Rider

Individual Finals

Juniors & Young Rider European Champions are crowned

As addition to his Team Gold medal
Gilles THOMAS won the Juniors Individual one as well.

Guido KLATTE reached with the Individual
Young Rider Gold
another medal for the German team.

Juniors Farewell-Victory goes to Polish Monika Grundkowska

Austrian talent Johanna Sixt close on her heels

Sunday morning was entirely dedicated to the Juniors Farewell-Competition. It was judged in Table A against the clock with jump-off like the yesterday's farewell competitions. Ten of the 30 competitors were qualified for the jump-off.

Seven riders were able to stay clear in the jump-off as well. One of them was Johanna SIXT from Austria, who participates in her 5th European Championships this year. The winner of the Juniors Grand Prix 2016 at Wierden (NED) and her mare "Koh I Noor" crossed the finishing line within 35,32 seconds. The Austrian national hymn at the prize giving ceremony was prevented by Monika Grundkowska from Poland: She was even faster and finished within 35,01 seconds. The third place went to Konstantinos-Evangelos PAPATHANASSIOU, who took on the long way from Greece up to Millstreet, with a time of 35,91 seconds.

2nd Gold Medal for Germany

Guido Klatte wins Individual Young Rider Final

The Young Rider Individual Final was the first medal decision on Sunday. The eldest participants of the Championships had to pass two further rounds. 30 riders were qualified for this final decision and contested for the three medals in demand. Wednesday's first round judged in Table C added the first penalty points to the Young Riders Individual Ranking. Even though no jump-off was needed to distribute the medals because of this first competition, clear rounds were absolutely necessary to finish on the front places.

Today's two rounds designed by course designer Gérard Lachat (SUI) challenged them entirely – only three riders were able to stay clear in both rounds: Guido KLATTE (GER) and his horse “Qinghai” succeeded from start to finish and won another gold medal for the German team. He had been riding his chestnut gelding since the horse has been three years old.

Lisa NOOREN (NED) did the fastest double-clear round in the final, but she crossed the finishing line a little bit later than her German rival in Wednesday's Table-C-Competition and reached the silver medal in the all-over-ranking. The bronze medal went to Switzerland: Vladya REVERDIN (SUI) had only one penalty point in the final competition.

Success all along the line for Belgian Gilles Thomas

From the first competition on Gilles THOMAS from Belgium dominated the Juniors Championships: He won the first one judged in Table C and finalized the individual ranking with a completely clean slate. He was definitely the undoubted winner of the individual gold medal. Furthermore, he won another golden one: He was part of the Belgian team which finished on the very top of the podium at the Nations Cup as well. His four-legged partner "Indiana V.H. Kapelhof" had been trained by him since last year's November. Last, but not least, they are the current Belgian champions.

Gilles THOMAS was closely followed by two ladyriders: Last years' winner and titleholder Camille CONDE FEIRREIRA from France and "Pirole De La Chatre" prevented a Belgian double-victory. She was only one second behind Gilles THOMAS in the Table-C-competition and did not put a single fence down in all other competitions. As already mentioned, the bronze medal went to Belgium as well. Zoe CONTER and "Zeta Di Sabuci" stayed completely clear as well and finished with 1,27 penalty points.
