The Early Bird Catches the Worm: 1st round of Young Riders' Nations Cup

At 8 a.m. the starting bell rang for the first round of the Young Riders' Nations Cup. 14 Nations turned them in the challenging course designed by Gérard Lachat from Switzerland. 12 obstacles led over 15 jumps. Including one triple combination, which turned out to be one of the most difficult parts of the course.

The fans of host country Ireland had every reason to be pleased: Three clear rounds enabled them to go on with a clean slate. The ideal result was reached by their riders Michael G. DUFFY, Matt GARRIGAN, Gavin HARLEY and Max O'REILLY-HYLAND and their four-legged partners.

Just one other team stayed completely clear as well: The Belgian riders Lynn D'HAVE, Leonie PEETERS, Boy-Adrian VAN GELDEREN and Chole VRANKEN are going to compete in a head-to-head race with Ireland and will do their best to defend their title as last year's team gold medal winner nation.

Ireland and Belgium are closely followed by the Netherlands with eight penalty points. Six other countries will participate in the second round on Friday with 12 penalty points: France, Germany, Great Britain, Norway, Spain and Switzerland. Last, but not least, Sweden will take part with 16 points.

Spanish victory caused folk festival mood at Green Glens

Six nations stayed completely clear on Tuesday: France, Germany, Great Britain, Hungary, Italy and Poland. Austria and Spain had only one penalty point. Belgium, Denmark, Norway and Russia put only one fence down – any of these nations were really close together and even closer to the first medals of the Championships.

Yesterday the Children had to pass two more rounds. This time, the course measured 130cm in height, but the young talents from all over Europe coped with them not less professional than the elder ones.

After the first round, ten teams were qualified for the second round in the afternoon (penalty points in brackets): Spain (1), Germany (4), Hungary (4), Italy (4), Great Britain (4), France (8), Austria (9), Russia (13), Belgium (13) and Denmark (16).

In the end Spain was able to stay completely clear in the second round of the day and was the fabulous winner team with a minimum of 1 penalty point. Germany and Italy were not far behind – both nations stayed clear as well and remained with their four penalties. As both of them were placed second, a jump off was necessary to distribute the silver and bronze medals.

The first three riders of each country stayed clear – the nerves of the last riders decided on the colour of the medals of their nations. Germany stayed clear and it was the turn of the Italians. Everybody held one's breath, but unfortunately, the last fence fell down and Germany was the glorious winner of the silver medal.

Germany and Italy celebrated their medals – Spain even more! The Mediterranean vitality was spread all around the arena during the medal ceremony and the traditional baptism of the medalists. Riders, coaches and their Chefs d'Équipes had to take a nice bath in the water jump – one of the funniest parts of the whole championship!

Children Individual Championships

As the riders of yesterday's medal decision did not only compete for their teams, but also for the individual medals, the intermediate results of the Individual Children Championships are of further interest as well.

Notable Guests from South Korea at Green Glens

The competitors of the European Jumping Championships 2016 in Millstreet powered by Devenish come from all over Europe, some of them from more than 3 000 kilometres away. Yesterday's guests travelled for even more: Over 9 000 kilometres at all!

Prof. Dr. Kabsu Kim and his students from South Korea have been staying in Ireland for a month. He has been training them within that time and on Thursday they've been to Greens Glens to enjoy finest horse sports.

In October they will return to Ireland because they have an invitation for the famous Charity Show on this area. A full team from South Korea will participate in this event.

For more information on the Charity Show at Greens Glens, see www.ownerscharityshow.org
