Thrilling Jump-Off

“Who gets what?”

in the Juniors’ Jump-Off for Team Medals

Yesterday was the first big day for the Junior competitors of this Championships: The decision for their team medals! Like the Children did on Thursday, they had to pass two rounds on their way to success. The cards were completely reshuffled as the first individual round on Wednesday did not count for the Nations Cup.

After the first round, only twelve of the original 19 teams were left to compete in the second round. Five teams did not put a single fence down: Italy, Denmark, Sweden, the Netherlands and – to the joy of our hosts – Ireland as well. Three nations were only four penalties behind: Belgium, Great Britain and France. Switzerland, Norway, Germany and Spain started with eight penalty points. The second round added lots of penalty points to the riders’ individual intermediate results. Belgium, Italy and Great Britain finished with 8 penalties, which meant that all of them would get a medal. Its colour was decided by a jump-off between the three of them. Denmark missed the jump-off only by a hair’s breadth: Unfortunately, their last rider put the very last fence down. The jump-off was as thrilling as a jump-off could be: The nerves were on edge, faults happened that would not happen otherwise – after all, the Belgian team consisting of Zoe CONTER, Simon MORSSINKHOF, Emilie CONTER and Gilles THOMAS won the jump-off with the same number of points as the Italians because they were a little bit faster than their Mediterranean rivals. Great Britain went third and won the bronze medal as they did in the year before at Wiener Neustadt/Austria.

Irish home victory

Europe's best Young Riders are dressed in green

On Thursday, the Young Riders competed in the first round of their Nations Cup. Belgium and host country Ireland finished with a clean slate, which was the best basis for further success. The other eight Nations permitted to participate in the second round as a team were (with penalty points in brackets): The Netherlands (8), Norway (12), Switzerland (12), Germany (12), Great Britain (12), France (12), Spain (12) and Sweden (16).

In the end, the Young Riders Nations Cup was the first team medal decision of this year's European Jumping Championships powered by Devenish which did not end up with a jump off. A jump-off was just not necessary – host country Ireland made the best out of its perfect basis with the team consisting of Michael G DUFFY, Matt GARRIGAN, MAX O'REILLY HYLAND and Gavin HARLEY and performed as the unchallenged winner! No doubt that they have got the best nerves as well: For the last rider it was very important to be clear to secure the gold medal for his team. Supported by the cheering crowd, he crossed the finishing line with no fence down and made the Irish dream come true.

All in all, the Irish won with a minimum of 5 penalty points, closely followed by the Netherlands with 10 points and Switzerland with 13 penalties, who won the silver and bronze medals.
