MILLSTREET 2023 – MEDIA ACCREDITATION APPLICATION FORM

Photography Policy 2023

The organising committee of Millstreet International Horse Trials has appointed 'Bit-Media' as their official press and competition photographer. Only the official appointed event photographer is allowed to take competitor images and sell them to the public.

No other individual or company has permission to attend the Green Glens Arena/Drishane Castle to take images of multiple competitors and sell them to members of the public or publish to online platforms/social media.

- Visiting press photographers must have a firm, paid editorial commission to apply for press accreditation. The publication, commissioning editor, email address and phone number must be included on the accreditation application form and they may be contacted by the Millstreet OC.
- All photographers must carry full Public Liability (€7m) and Third Party Liability insurance and by accepting these conditions indemnify Millstreet International Horse Trials and their agents against all costs, claims and other expenses that they may incur from any third party. Evidence of such insurance must be available and produced on request during the Event.
- Only the officially appointed event photographers may sell or publish multiple images of competitors directly to competitors, owners &/or the public within sixty days of the competition. Persons found to have sold/published multiple images prior to Tuesday 1st August 2023 will not be permitted to attend future events at Millstreet Green Glens Arena. Taking images of friends or family, for personal use (excluding online publication), is of course absolutely permitted.
- Access to the dressage/showjumping arena will be limited and only those granted such access will be permitted to remain in the arena to cover the presentations. All photographers must stay outside the ropes and obey instructions of event stewards/officials on the cross country course.
- Professional and semi-professional photographers are not allowed to take photos anywhere on the showground unless they have press accreditation. Those suspected of doing so will be asked to leave the premises immediately.

I agree to abide by the photographic policy put in place by the Millstreet OC.
